GOOD FUN AFTER THE SNOW-STORM.

A SOLEMN DUTY.

One of our most reliable writers [in a paper now before us] says Spain, at President McKinley's request, granted:

- (1) That Weyler be removed from Cuba.
- (2) Permission to send food to the starving Cubans.
- (3) That autonomy be granted to Cuba similar to that which Canada enjoys from England.

And (4) that President McKinley could have obtained the entire freedom of Cuba by peaceful negotiations if Congressional Jingoos and the Jingo press had not driven him to declare war.

In another paper we find the following:

"I could have arranged a treaty by which Spain would have retired peacefully from the island of Cuba."—JOHN SHERMAN, Ex-Secretary of State.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE ABOUT 20,000 AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES THAT RECEIVE "OUR DUMB ANIMALS" EACH MONTH.

We find in the February issue of that most reliable New York health publication, The Sanitarian, that Manila and its surroundings constitute one of the most unhealthful districts of the entire East—so unhealthful that but for the immigration of Chinamen and others they would become entirely depopulated.

Ought not our American soldiers to know this before enlisting for service there?

GEO. T. ANGELL.

We notice that a [so-called] "Evangelical Christian League" has been sending an appeal to clergymen to help hold the Philippines with a great army and navy, supported at enormous expense, and sure to involve us sooner or later in war.

The Boston Transcript, by inquiry at various religious headquarters, has been unable to find who compose it.

We have faith to believe that the Christian clergy of America, as a rule, will preach the gospel of peace, and not the gospel of war.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

"If Congress had left the matter to the President, he could have secured everything wanted in Cuba without the sacrifice of one drop of American or Spanish blood."—CONGRESSMAN BOUTELLE, of Maine.

"I was not a believer in the necessity, or the wisdom, or the justice of the war."—EX-GOVERNOR BOUTWELL.

In view of these facts we believe that we discharged a solemn duty when we sent the President on the second day of last April a telegram asking him to say to Congress that in the then condition of negotiations with the Spanish government we had no more right to force Spain into a war and kill thousands of the young men compelled to serve in her armies and navy, than a pirate had to commit murder on the ocean, or a highwayman to commit murder on the land.

The creed of our "American Humane Education Society" and its over 35,000 "Bands of Mercy" is "Glory to God," "Peace on Earth," "Kindness, Justice and Mercy to every living creature."

In pursuance of that creed we want to teach the youth of America and the world that Christ is the true model, and that the men who cause unnecessary wars or voluntarily [for pay or otherwise] march onto battle-fields to wound and kill their fellow-men deserve only the condemnation of every Christian man and woman.

The Red Cross men and women and "Sisters of Charity" who risk their lives on battle-fields—and in the hospitals—the locomotive engineers who risk their lives in great emergencies to save the lives of their passengers—the firemen who risk their lives to save the lives of others in burning buildings—the coast-guards who risk their lives to save those of drowning sailors—all those wherever they are who risk their lives to save the lives of others—these are the true heroes who are entitled to the world's gratitude, while the men who bring upon us unnecessary wars, or who voluntarily [for pay or otherwise] aid in carrying them on, are deserving only of the world's detestation.

We would rather stand to render our final account before the Great Judge, at the bar of infinite justice, in the place of that Boston policeman who, a few days ago, at the imminent risk of his life, stopped four runaway horses on one of our crowded thoroughfares, than in the place of any man who has won [or shall hereafter win] fame by killing, or causing to be killed, the men, women and children of the Philippine Islands.

We want to teach the youth of America [and the whole world] that unnecessary wars are the most terrible curse in the world, both to human beings and the lower animals, and that those who cause or voluntarily engage in unnecessary wars [however much they may be praised] are not heroes. Such wars are simply murders, and those who cause or promote them are criminals.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

IN ALL THE FEASTINGS.

In all the great feastings and entertainments, and eloquent congratulatory speeches during the late visit of President McKinley and members of his cabinet to Boston, we do not remember to have seen one sentence about the hundred thousand poor people who died of starvation in Cuba—or about the sufferings of our soldiers hurried down there in the hot unhealthy season—or about the sufferings and deaths by disease, and in battle of some thousands of young men compelled by draft to serve in the Spanish armies and navy—or about the killing already of some thousands of men, women and children in the Philippine Islands—or about the sufferings of the mothers and wives, and fathers and friends of those now dead, who have perished by reason of this unnecessary war with Spain, which the President could have easily prevented if he had been let alone by congress and the press.

We are not a politician and do not know what effect these festivities may have on our political future; but in all that was said and done during this presidential visit, we have failed to see a single lesson of mercy to the youth of America—or a single indication of sorrow for the suffering, or mourning for the dead.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

"Better the 'well done' at last, Than air with shoutings rent."

JUSTICE BREWER OF OUR U. S.
SUPREME COURT.

[From the Boston Evening Transcript of Feb. 25.]

A JUDICIAL VIEW OF EXPANSION.

Justice D. J. Brewer of the United States Supreme Court is not the country's Executive, but he is a distinguished member of a co-ordinate branch of the Federal Government, which is the equal and indeed frequently overthrows acts framed by the other two branches of the Government. He was appointed by President Harrison and has helped to formulate some very sound and important decisions. He belongs to a family of jurists and patriots, and it is only very strong convictions that will induce him to leave, even temporarily, the bench for the platform to discuss great national questions. But on the same evening that the President was speaking before the Home Market Club in this city, Justice Brewer was delivering an address upon the same subject before the Liberal Club of Buffalo, N. Y., and this address has hardly had the publicity which it deserved.

He said: "We have lived and prospered for 123 years with a handful of regular troops. We have preserved peace at home and have been respected abroad. Government by consent of the governed has little need of the soldier. So the world has come to believe and so it is. Are we ready to forfeit this high position?"

"Are we not sowing the seeds which in the days to come will grow up into a harvest of trouble for our children and our children's children?"

"We have 10,000,000 or 12,000,000 of unskilled colored laborers south of Mason and Dixon's line. Are we likely to aid in solving the labor problem by bringing into our national life 10,000,000 or 12,000,000 unskilled Malay laborers?"

Justice Brewer is not an old fogey, a "traitor" or a "little American," but a distinguished citizen and patriot, who loves his country.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The President of the United States has visited Boston and made known to our people and the world the policy which he proposes to carry out.

Below will be found the words of Sergeant

Bates in the Boston Evening Transcript of June 6th, 1895:

WHAT DOES OUR AGGRESSION MEAN?

It means the conquest through great sacrifice of blood and treasure of Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines and any other territory that the chances of war may give us. It means the active and ever-present service of from 100,000 to 150,000 soldiers to control the inhabitants of these possessions and protect them from internal disorder. It means foreign death and foreign graves for many thousand Americans, and destroyed health and happiness for still more through the climatic conditions of these possessions. It means that, in case of foreign complications, which these possessions are most certain to bring, a standing army of 300,000 in time of peace and an army three to five times as great in time of war, and the increase of our navy to several times its present strength. It means a vast increase of taxation and a burden upon labor far greater and more lasting than that imposed by the civil and all prior American wars; in fact, a burden upon a burden—a greater upon the smaller already existing. It means the adoption into the American political family of 11,000,000 foreign people—a people antagonistic to and opposite to the American in race, character, habits, customs and religion. It means opening the doors for the entrance of a steady and increasing flood of cheap and ignorant Asiatic and South American laborers in competition with American laborers already sorely oppressed and distressed by an excess of cheap European labor. It means a strong and stronger growing, and, in time, irresistible aristocracy of wealth and political power to rule and direct their own, irrespective of the interests of the common people. It means a much more rapid increase of poverty, crime and disorder; an increase of police, police stations, prisons and asylums for the poor and insane. It means the repudiation of the policies and principles that created and brought the republic to its present greatness and power; it means the abuse and misapplication of this power and disappearance of the republic as an example to and influence for good over the liberty-loving people of the whole world.

SERGEANT BATES.

DOES IT NOT SEEM A PITY?

Does it not seem a pity that the Filipino men [and women], who, knowing nothing of the power of machine guns and modern artillery, came to Manila with bows and arrows to fight for their country—should have had no knowledge of our merciful intentions.

A Colorado man says [through our morning paper] that when our soldiers chased and shot them it seemed like a Colorado rabbit drive.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

William Penn got all the lands he wanted from the Indian tribes about him without the firing of a single gun, and lived with them in perfect peace and harmony.

WE WONDER.

We wonder whether as many lies will be told about the Filipinos as were told about the North American Indians who had no one to tell their side of the story?

Founders of American Band of Mercy.

GEO. T. ANGELL and REV. THOMAS TIMMINS.

Office of Parent American Band of Mercy.

GEO. T. ANGELL, President; JOSEPH L. STEVENS, Secretary.

Over thirty-five thousand branches of the Parent American Band of Mercy have been formed, with probably over a million members.

PLEDGE.

"I will try to be kind to all harmless living creatures, and try to protect them from cruel usage."

Any Band of Mercy member who wishes can cross out the word harmless from his or her pledge. M. S. P. C. A. on our badges means "Merciful Society Prevention of Cruelty to All."

We send without cost, to every person asking, a copy of "Band of Mercy Information" and other publications.

Also without cost, to every person who writes that he or she has formed a "Band of Mercy" by obtaining the signatures of thirty adults or children or both—either signed or authorized to be signed—to the pledge, also the name chosen for the "band" and the name and post-office address [town and State] of the president:

1. Our monthly paper, "OUR DUMB ANIMALS," full of interesting stories and pictures, for one year.
2. Mr. Angell's Address to the High, Latin, Normal and Grammar Schools of Boston.
3. Copy of Band of Mercy Songs.
4. Twelve Lessons on Kindness to Animals, containing many anecdotes.
5. Eight Humane Leaflets, containing pictures and one hundred selected stories and poems.
6. For the President, an imitation gold badge.

The head officers of Juvenile Temperance Associations, and teachers and Sunday-school teachers, should be presidents of Bands of Mercy.

Nothing is required to be a member but to sign the pledge, or authorize it to be signed.

Any intelligent boy or girl fourteen years old can form a Band with no cost, and receive what we offer, as before stated.

The prices for badges, gold or silver imitation, are eight cents large, five cents small; ribbon, gold stamped, eight cents, ink printed, four cents; song and hymn books, with fifty-two songs and hymns, two cents; cards of membership, two cents; and membership book, eight cents. The "Twelve Lessons on Kindness to Animals" cost only two cents for the whole, bound together in one pamphlet. The Humane Leaflets cost twenty-five cents a hundred, or eight for five cents.

Everybody, old or young, who wants to do a kind act, to make the world happier and better, is invited to address, by letter or postal, GEO. T. ANGELL, Esq., President, 19 Milk Street, Boston, Mass., and receive full information.

Good Order of Exercises for Band of Mercy Meetings:

- 1.—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn, and repeat the Pledge together. [See Melodies.]
- 2.—Remarks by President, and reading of Report of last meeting by Secretary.
- 3.—Readings, "Angell Prize Contest Recitations," "Memory Gems," and anecdotes of good and noble sayings and deeds done to both human and dumb creatures, with vocal and instrumental music.
- 4.—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn.
- 5.—A brief address. Members may then tell what they have done to make human and dumb creatures happier and better.
- 6.—Enrollment of new members.
- 7.—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn.

AMERICAN BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We find in the Boston Herald of February 4th a letter from the Rev. Dr. James L. Barton, Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He says that he is in a position to know the five hundred and forty missionaries of the American Board, and does not know one who is in favor of an Imperialistic policy.

The following is the last part of his letter:

"Hitherto our missionaries have gone to the ends of the earth carrying on their work, and it has never been charged upon them that they were the forerunners of colonies to be planted, which in turn were to lead to a protectorate from the home country, if not annexation. Missionaries from England, Germany and France have been open to these charges, and thereby their influence has been greatly narrowed and their efforts misinterpreted, while our own missionaries have been entirely unhampered.

"I think I state what would be most generally received by the officers and members of our own board when I say we should be most loth to ask the extension of an American protectorate over any non-Christian country on the ground that thus our missionaries would be more free to carry on their work. We believe that it would be most disastrous to our work to have this step taken."

Rev. Dr. Lorimer to the Christian Endeavorers' Convention at Tremont Temple, February 2nd, 1899.

"The most magnificent panorama of imperial expansion that ever dazzled the imagination was presented by Satan to Christ when he offered him all the kingdoms of the world. And yet the master declined. To many people his rejection of such an empire must seem unreasonable, unpatriotic and unphilanthropic. Did it not occur to him that if he attached these nations to Palestine he would be able to do them immense good? Did he not realize that he was responsible for their welfare, that they could not better their own conditions, and that they had been put under his control by manifest destiny? No, he appears to have been oblivious to all such arguments."

"Christianity has nothing to gain in foreign lands if its presence is secured there by the policy of a government whose methods are essentially imperialistic. The proof of this is furnished by the incontestable fact that the success of American missions in alien lands, without annexation or colonization, has been more remarkable among the natives than those that have been backed by the prestige of imperialism. . . . Heretofore America has been regarded by the heathen as being free from the crimes committed against them by others, and hence the gospel from the lips of Christ's ambassadors has received respectful attention. But let her attitude change, let her become like all the rest, and let the enforcement of her sovereignty lead to outrages and executions, and her imperialism will be as pernicious to Christianity as was that of Rome.

There will be additional difficulties placed in the way of Protestantism if it is held responsible for a line of action on the part of the American government, which to the inhabitants shall seem harsh and unjust. . . . However others, then, may be misled by much that is being uttered and published as highest wisdom, let us as Endeavorers not be deceived. Christianity must expand; we are set for its triumphs everywhere; but let us not for a moment suppose that this can be secured by the slimy and crooked arts of worldly politics."

Boston Herald, Feb. 3, 1899.

"Do unto others as you would be done unto" is a good rule for nations as well as individuals.

OUR EASTER PICTURE.

"Blessed are the Merciful: for they shall obtain Mercy."

SAN FRANCISCO.

From address of John J. Valentine, President of San Francisco Y. M. C. A., to the California State Convention of the Y. M. C. A.'s, Feb. 9th:

"What shall it profit Americans if they gain the whole world and lose their reverence for loyalty to the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and all the most cherished principles of our fair fabric of liberty, based on the immutable principles of the truth as it is in Jesus?" "I ask ministers of the gospel . . . whether they believe that war is any other than Bismarck and Sherman have characterized it 'Hell on earth'?"

If to our 35,000 "Bands of Mercy" could be joined the great hosts of our "Y. M. C. A.'s and Christian Endeavorers and Epworth Leagues, and behind them our Christian churches, all marching under one flag on which should be inscribed "Glory to God, 'Peace on Earth,' 'Kindness, Justice and Mercy to all"—then the dishonest politicians who now so largely control the votes of our congress and legislatures would be relegated to their proper place, and we should stand before all nations as the world's great Christian Commonwealth.

God hasten the time when this may be done.

OUR DUMB ANIMALS.

Boston, March, 1899.

ARTICLES for this paper may be sent to
GEO. T. ANGELL, President, 19 Milk St.

BACK NUMBERS FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Persons wishing Our Dumb Animals for gratuitous distribution can send us five cents to pay postage, and receive ten copies, or ten cents and receive twenty copies. We cannot afford larger numbers at this price.

TEACHERS AND CANVASSERS.

Teachers can have Our Dumb Animals one year for twenty-five cents.

Persons wishing to canvass for the paper will please make application to this office.

Our American Humane Education Society sends this paper this month to the editors of over twenty thousand newspapers and magazines.

OUR AMBULANCE

Can be had at any hour of the day or night by calling Telephone 992 Tremont.

Horse owners are expected to pay reasonable charges.

In emergency cases of severe injury, where owners are unable to pay, the ambulance will be sent at the expense of the Society.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND REMITTANCES.

We would respectfully ask all persons who send us subscriptions or remittances to examine our report of receipts, which is published in each number of our paper, and if they do not find the sums they have sent properly credited, kindly notify us.

If correspondents fail to get satisfactory answers please write again, and on the envelope put the word "Personal."

My correspondence is now so large that I can read only a small part of the letters received, and seldom long ones.
GEO. T. ANGELL.

We are glad to publish this month nine hundred and seventy new branches of our Parent Band of Mercy, making a total of thirty-five thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

NEW BAND OF MERCY BADGES.

There having been a wide call for cheaper Band of Mercy badges, we have succeeded in adding to the kinds we have been using a new badge in the two sizes above represented. They are very handsome—a white star on a blue ground, with gilt letters, and we sell them at bare cost, five for ten cents, in money or postage stamps, or larger numbers at same price. We cannot attend to smaller orders than five.

HUMANE EDUCATION AND PROTECTION OF ANIMALS.

At the February directors' meeting of the "American Humane Education Society" and "Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," held on the 15th ult., President Angell reported that the Society's officers during the past month had investigated 1719 cases, taken 54 horses from work, and mercifully killed 128 horses and other animals. 953 new "Bands of Mercy" had been formed during the month, making a total of 35,914.

OUR SILVER MEDAL TO PATROLMAN JOHN F. QUINN.

Our readers will remember that the directors of our "M. S. P. C. A." recently awarded the Society's silver medal to Patrolman John F. Quinn for his brave deed in stopping four runaway horses, thereby saving perhaps the lives of some human beings, as well as of the four horses which he succeeded in stopping.

We are glad to receive from Mr. Quinn the following:

Police Station No. 2, Jan. 26, 1899.

My Dear Sir:—The handsome medal bestowed on me by the Directors of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, I received last night. I desire to extend through you to the Directors of your Society my sincere thanks and hearty appreciation of the honor conferred upon me. In years to come I can look back with pleasure upon this emblem which has been so kindly bestowed, and know that the act performed by me on Saturday night, January 14th, 1899, has been considered worthy of notice and appreciated.

Most respectfully yours,

JOHN F. QUINN, Patrolman Div. 2.

IN OUR GREAT SNOW-STORM OF FEBRUARY 8TH.

In the midst of the above storm we sent the following to Boston daily papers, which kindly published it.

FOR THE HORSES.

"Will you kindly permit me to ask all teamsters and horse owners who read your paper to spare their horses, so far as possible, from being overloaded during the stormy weather, and so help us in protecting our working horses from great suffering?"

GEO. T. ANGELL.

AN EXTRA MAN.

We send out an extra man through our principal streets on cold days wearing a rubber overcoat, on the front and back of which are printed in large letters a request, "Please blanket your horses while stopping," and on warmer days wearing a similar overcoat, on the front and back of which is printed a request, "Please do not permit your horses to be too tightly checked."

TO POLICE OFFICERS, SHERIFFS, DEPUTY SHERIFFS AND CONSTABLES.

Any police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable in Massachusetts, who will write us of some kind act or acts he has done for the prevention of cruelty to dumb animals, will receive this paper one year without charge.

In moving out of town don't forget your cat.

Christ fed the multitude first, and then preached to them. Christ knew more about human nature than some of his modern disciples do.—Dallas Mercury.

Don't kill your dog trying to make him run with your bicycle. Dogs were intended for no such purpose.

LUCKNOW, INDIA.

We are glad to receive on this February 3rd an order for our literature from the Lucknow [India] "Band of Mercy."

TO STABLE KEEPERS.

One large stable-keeper has distributed seventeen hundred copies of "Black Beauty."

We think it would be a good investment for many stable-keepers to furnish not only their men, but also many of their customers, with a copy of this book.

"FOR PITY'S SAKE."

For this our latest humane story [which every one ought to read], we have on Feb. 10th an order from Ottawa, Canada, for 400 copies.

WHAT THE REV. CHARLES BEECHER SAYS OF "FOR PITY'S SAKE."

"I hail this little book as one of the signs of millennial days, when 'They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord.'"

BACK NUMBERS OF "OUR DUMB ANIMALS."

As our readers will remember, we sent a large number of our paper to "The National Teachers' Convention" at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for gratuitous distribution. A large proportion of them were distributed, but a few thousands were left over; these we will send, without charge, to any one who will undertake to distribute them and pay the expressage on them.

The man who leaves his horses standing out on a cold day without blanketing them ought to be stripped and tied out in the woods himself.—Dayton (Pa.) News.

OUR "BAND OF MERCY" ORGANIZERS.

Mr. Leach, our Massachusetts organizer of "Bands of Mercy," has been at work during the past month organizing "Bands of Mercy" in all the public schools of the cities of Lynn and Woburn. In regard to his success we cannot do better than to publish the following from Mr. O. B. Bruce, Lynn Superintendent of Public Schools:

Feb. 7, 1899.

MY DEAR MR. LEACH,—I cannot let you depart from Lynn without tendering some expression of the appreciation of teachers and superintendent respecting your recent tour of noble work among our schools.

Your kindly, whole-souled manner with our pupils, your delicate adaptation to class or grade in our schools, and the serious impression made upon our boys and girls—all unite to stamp your service in humane education among us as one of the labors whose results will be realized in the better spirit and action of our young people toward God's creation everywhere.

Wishing all the success deserved in your noble and humane cause, I am

Yours truly,

O. B. BRUCE, Supt. of Schools.

Mr. Hubbard, our Western "Band of Mercy" organizer, has been at work in the schools of Illinois with great success, as shown by numerous letters from School Superintendents and others.

THE CITY OF PEACE.

On yonder lone hill stands the City of Peace,
And among the dark foliage there
I can see its white spires and glittering domes
Gleam forth through the still evening air.
It has beautiful avenues stretching afar,
And many a cross running street,
But no sound of horsemen, nor rumble of car,
Nor din of on-hurrying feet.

There's a wide granite wall round the City of Peace,
And its iron gates guard every way;
But no one outside seeks to enter therein,
Nor would any within go astray.
Sweet flowers abound. By mansion and cot
The roses and violets blow,
And yet the inhabitants gather them not
To wear on their bosoms of snow.

There are numberless forms in the City of Peace
Which childhood might claim as its own;
But no rippling laughter, no voices of glee,
Resound through those houses of stone.
No toys unremembered the corridors fill,
No need of a guardian's care;
For the dimpled white hands are now folded and still,
And none are disturbed by them there.

There are those from mid-life-in the City of Peace,
Fair women and brave-hearted men,
With hand from the plowshare, the workshop, the mart,
The chisel, the brush and the pen.
All are there, but no clangor of anvil or loom
Outwearies the sun's waning light,
No glimmer of dim study-lamp with the gloom
Contents through the watches of night.

The aged are there in the City of Peace;
Their thin locks were whitened with grief,
And their shoulders bent low by the burdens of care
They had borne ere they found their relief.
They are there, but their pains and their sorrows
are gone,
At the gates of the city they sped,
And the staff and the crutch they had once leaned upon
Have been left with the ills that are fled.

They grow old no more in the City of Peace,
The seasons of bloom and of snow
In rapid succession alternately come,
Disarmed of each weapon of woe.
They murmur no more. No discords appear
To mar the serene of that spot,
Where those who had striven in enmity there
Have all of their strivings forgot.

No scepter is known in the City of Peace,
Distinctions no longer divide;
But pontiff and peasant, and beggar and king,
In changeless equality bide.
The same kindly earth folds them fast to her breast,
The same gentle dews nightly fall,
The same zephyrs lull them to untroubled rest,
And the same loving skies over all.

No watchmen of earth walk the City of Peace,
But the angels of God gather there,
And bending in love over each lowly bed
They guard it with tenderest care.
And while these yet linger new legions draw nigh,
Lest the sleepers might waken alone,
And thus to and fro they unceasingly fly
Twixt the City of Peace and the Throne.

They are waiting for us in the City of Peace,
And, whithersoever we fare,
We shall ne'er find a pathway which leads not at last
With unerring certainty there.
They are waiting for us. We are hastening on.
Each eventide brings us more near
The shadowy portals through which those have gone
Whom we miss in our journeyings here.

O silent, O wonderful City of Peace,
God's outlying villa of rest,
Where He calls all His children to give them release
From the toils that their lives have oppressed!
O city coeval with time in its birth,
And the last yet to be overthrown,
The gathering place of the millions of earth,
The seaport for countries unknown.

SPANISH CAPTAIN SAVED AMERICAN SAILORS.

We find in our evening paper of February 18th report of the British Consul who now represents our interests at Corunna, Spain, that American barque Eva Reed of Bath, Me., foundered at sea on Dec. 2nd, and her crew were picked up by the Spanish barkentine Gabriel and landed at Corunna. The American crew were on board the Gabriel twenty-six days and were treated most kindly, and the Spanish captain [though hard pressed to do so], refused to accept any compensation whatever.

This is the kind of Christianity our American Humane Education Society is seeking to promote all over the world, and with money specially given for the purpose is now sending our Spanish edition of "Black Beauty" to all Spanish-speaking countries and endeavoring to establish in all of them our "Bands of Mercy."

pathies of their neighbors.

HER COUNTRY AT THE CHICAGO INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

WHERE WE HAVE BEEN SENDING OUR SPANISH "BLACK BEAUTY."

With funds specially given us for this purpose we have been sending a large number of copies of our Spanish "Black Beauty" to General Wood at Santiago de Cuba—to Baranquilla, Columbia, S. America—to Callao, Peru, S. America—to Bolivia, S. America—to Caracas, Venezuela, S. America—to Guayaquil, Ecuador, S. America—to Androgné, Argentina, S. America—to Buenos Ayres, Argentina, S. THE SPANISH PEOPLE.

"Judging from what I have seen for myself, I am compelled to believe that the Spaniards at home are a singularly honest, quiet, sunny-natured race, scorn- ing meanness, and honorable for honor's sake. With great sobriety of demeanor, especially in the north, they have kindness of heart and generosity of spirit, and maintain a frank, sincere bearing in all their intercourse. I am aware how incredible this will sound; yet allegiance to truth and justice makes any other testimony on my part impossible."—ABBA GOULD WOOLSON, in Boston Herald.

Massachusetts has the first law prohibiting vivisection in the schools.

What would Abraham Lincoln or George Washington have thought of the policy of conquering ten millions of Asiatics and keeping a great army in a malarious country to hold them in subjection?

A DREAM OF EMPIRE.

I dream of an Empire vast, sublimer than Rome of old,
A giant to make the past seem petty and poor and cold.
I see in the lengthening years the nation's shadow grow,
O'erspreading the hemispheres, as Freedom's sun sinks low.
The pulse of pride is thrilled at the thought of the things to be,
And Caesar's soul is filled with a vision of Destiny.
The fetters are broken made for us by the Fathers gone,
And Jefferson's ghost is laid with the spectre of Washington.
Now welcome the Empire grand cemented in blood and might!
At last shall our country stand, emancipated from Right!
Farewell to the setting sun that rose on the nation's birth;
His pitiful race is run—our heritage is the earth.
I dream of an Empire vast, divided by robbers twain:
Yet oft I awake aghast with a sting of shame and pain,
For, what if a Judge there be of nations as well as men,
And a real eternity with laws beyond our ken?
And what if He fail to see in the scales His fingers hold
An ounce of supremacy for Color or Caste or Gold?
'Tis sweeter to dream or drink, as the joyous feast goes on;
For, should we awake and think, we might think of Babylon.

JAMES JEFFREY ROCHE, in the Criterion.

If the English Government wants to promote peace, why is it now adding to its enormous navy 119 new war vessels? And why does it think it necessary to begin training its boys from 13 to 18 years of age for war? Is it because of the warlike spirit shown by our President and Congress?

MONUMENTS.

We are glad to find these few lines, which appeared in our January issue, widely reprinted in our exchanges:

"If monuments are to be erected in honor of anybody who has taken part in this Cuban war, let them be erected in honor of 'The Red Cross Nurses' and 'Sisters of Charity.'"

OUR ARMY AND NAVY.

Some of our newspapers are constantly quoting the opinions of army and navy officers in regard to the desirability of increasing our army and navy.

Of course they all favor it.

So do all army and navy contractors and political bummers who hope to get fat offices.

AGASSIZ'S BELIEF IN THE IMMORTALITY OF ANIMALS.

It would be idle to multiply instances of the thorough humanity and geniality of Agassiz. Everybody who knew him can tell hundreds of anecdotes illustrative of his sympathy with all forms of life, whether in the jelly-fish, the human child, the developing boy or girl, the mature man or woman. Still his conviction of the immateriality and personality of mind was something wonderful in so austere a naturalist. We happened once to please him by defining a jelly-fish as organized water. "Now look at it through the microscope," he said. "But, Agassiz, the play of organization is so wonderful that it seems to me that nothing but mind can account for it." "You are right," was his answer, "in some incomprehensible way, God Almighty has created these beings, and I cannot doubt of their immortality any more than I doubt of my own."—Boston Globe.

HORSES IN WAR.

We have recently seen a picture of a battlefield covered with dead and dying horses as well as men. In our civil war thousands of horses were left on battlefields and in the wildernesses to die of starvation. War is a terrible curse to dumb creatures. The races between German and Austrian officers, which aroused the indignation of humane people throughout the world, were nothing when compared with the suffering sometimes inflicted in a single cavalry charge and sometimes even by the explosion of a single shell.

Every kind word you say to a dumb animal or bird will make you happier.

KINDNESS TO DUMB ANIMALS.

The wagon was heavily laden with great bags of metal, too heavy for a single horse to draw, one would have thought.

It turned into a side street and half way down the block again turned into an alley at the rear of a livery stable. It required considerable tugging on the part of the horse to pull the load up the incline of the alley driveway, but he did it, and the driver looked pleased when the back wheels had made the rise and settled down to level ground. At the barn door it was necessary to turn the wagon around completely and back in. Surely one horse could not do that. The turn was made easily enough, but there remained.

"Back him up, Jim!" said the man, pulling lightly at the reins.

The horse braced his fore feet and shoved. The wagon didn't move.

The man got down from the seat and went around to the back of the truck and pulled. "Back!" he commanded. The horse put every muscle to the strain. "Back!" The wagon moved, this time at least a foot. Two more, and the back wheels would be over the threshold of the barn door.

"Back!" The command moved the horse to exert his greatest effort. There was a crunch of splintering wood and the wagon rolled back.

Not a blow had been struck the animal. Only gentle words had been spoken, and the horse had done the rest.

And when it was all over the man did not go on unloading the wagon without a further thought of the great, obedient animal standing still between the shafts. He went to him and took his nose in his hands and patted him between the eyes and said: "Good, old Jim! You did do it, didn't you? I knew you would."

And the horse rubbed his nose against the man's cheek.

It is pleasant now and then to see such things.—Catholic Calendar.

JOKE ON THE DOGS.

[Detroit Free Press.]

"I've always regarded woman as the weaker vessel," said the reporter, "but want to say right here that Mrs. Slims is a very remarkable person. I don't believe she could tell a Percheron from a Kentucky thoroughbred, yet I saw her start a balky horse the other day after twenty men and boys had been beating, kicking and cursing the poor brute for half an hour. The persuasion she used was a couple of lumps of sugar and a few kind words.

"But it was just yesterday that she convinced me of her great superiority. Slims has a bull terrier, and Torton, who lives next door, owns a big St. Bernard. The two dogs began an argument through the fence, and the larger one simplified matters by crashing through a board into Slims' yard. The whole neighborhood was soon engaged in an effort to part them. Clubs were freely used, water was dashed upon the belligerents, and the stern orders for them to 'break away' could be heard blocks off. When Mrs. Slims appeared on the scene she seemed to grasp the situation in one glance. She flew into the house, dashed out again, and inside of a minute had the savage fighters slinking away from each other."

"How did she do it?"

"Bottle of ammonia. Surest thing on earth to break up a dog fight. Why, those two beasts quit like pet sheep, and the joke of it is that each dog thinks the other administered the dose. They never see each other now that they do not curl their noses as though sniffing ammonia, and trot briskly in opposite directions."

TO PREVENT PREMATURE BURIAL.

We are glad to know that a bill, carefully prepared by an eminent New York lawyer, is now before the New York Legislature to stop "premature burials." Mortuary buildings where bodies can be carefully kept must be erected in principal cities and towns. Attending physicians or coroners must certify that they have found the following signs of death:

1. Permanent cessation of respiration and circulation.
2. Purple discoloration of the dependent parts of the body.
3. Appearance of blistering around a part of the skin touched with a red hot iron.
4. The characteristic stiffness known as rigor mortis.
5. Signs of decomposition.

The following, as appears in New York Herald of Jan. 29th, 1899, are additional signs of death used by the attendants in German mortuaries:

- "Respiratory failure.
- Cardiac failure.
- Absence of filling of veins under pressure.
- Reduction of temperature below normal.
- Rigor mortis and muscle collapse.
- Coagulation of blood.
- Decomposition.
- Absence of red color in semi-transparent parts under the influence of a powerful stream of light.
- Absence of muscular contraction under galvanism.
- Absence of signs of rust on a bright steel needle after plunging it deep into the tissue.

It is necessary to apply nearly all of these tests before making sure of death. The German mortuary attendants use all of them. They do not depend upon such simple and delusive signs as loss of lustre in the eyes or muscular relaxation, which are common in epilepsy and trance. If a person is dead decomposition is almost sure to set in after seventy-two hours have elapsed. If it does not set in after that time there is room for investigation by the physician."

Full information can doubtless be obtained by writing H. Gerald Chapin, Esq. (lawyer), N. Y. City, or Assemblyman Redington, Albany, N. Y.

We have urged in past numbers of this paper that Life Insurance Companies or Insurance Companies formed for the express purpose shall establish mortuaries in all our cities and larger towns, where bodies shall be carefully watched as in Germany until signs of decay appear.

In behalf of our American Humane Education Society, we have petitioned every one of our state legislatures to enact suitable laws on this subject, and have also written the President of every State Senate and the Speaker of every House of Representatives to the same effect.

PREMATURE BURIAL.

In the New York Sun of February 10th we find a dispatch from Tonawanda, N. Y., that the body of James Ridley being exhumed to ascertain the cause of his death, it was discovered by the broken glass covering of the casket, distorted features and other things too painful to be mentioned, that Mr. Ridley was undoubtedly buried while in a trance, although his physician had pronounced him dead and the body showed no signs of life at the time of burial.

Mr. Ridley was a prominent gentleman, and the discovery has been a great shock to his friends.

NOT DEAD.

STURGEON BAY, WIS., Jan. 22.—Jacob Grath, a son of Charles Grath, of Nasewaupsee, had been ill for some time, and, respiration having ceased, he was thought to be dead. Relatives were telegraphed for, the casket ordered, and the undertaker proceeded to prepare the remains for the coffin. While the undertaker was washing the body the supposed corpse sprang up, dashed through the house, frightening every member therein, and became violently insane. Young Grath had been in a trance 48 hours. He was finally captured, and on examination was taken to Sturgeon Bay for commitment to an asylum.

Boston Journal, Jan. 23, 1899.

"Such are the dangers which we face! The development of a militarism that may increase our modest little army of some twenty thousand soldiers to five hundred thousand; that may convert our country into the home of the oppressor and the land of the despot, and by the power of Pretorian guards and gatling guns turn those same weapons, that now point at Cuban and Filipino, against the breast of the civilian at home who dares assert his rights."—HENRY FRANK.

CAT'S CAPRICES.

[From the Saturday Review.]

There are contradictory elements in the character of a cat. No animal is more independent, and none is more remarkable for its power of finding its way back from great distances than a cat. Everyone knows that a perfectly comfortable, well-fed cat will occasionally go to a house and settle there, deserting a family by whom it is lamented, and to whom if it choose it could find its way back with ease. This conduct is a mystery which may lead us to infer that cats form a great secret society. Doubtless they come and go in pursuance of some secret policy connected with the education of cats, or perhaps with witch-craft. We have known a cat desert a house for years; once in six months he would return and look about him with an air of contempt. "Such" he seemed to say, "were my humble beginnings." He went on no offence given, and in about three years he came back for good, his mission elsewhere having probably been accomplished.

That a cat can come home in the face of most incredible difficulties is perfectly certain. Thus, to take a recent instance, a cat was carried from a town on the north-east coast of Fife to a country-house near Perth. It went in a basket by train to Leuchars, where it changed for Dundee, and at Dundee changed for Perth. Next day, about seven in the morning, this cat was observed to run down the avenue of its new home with a purposeful air. On the third day it appeared at its old home. Now, how did that cat achieve its journey? Did it take a bee-line across the country, and, if so, how did it know the direction? That the cat simply rode on a broomstick behind a witch is an hypothesis which brings us into unfriendly contact with modern ideas of progress. Somehow the thing was done, and done in forty-eight hours. Cats, much more than dogs, are independent of a home. They can take to the heather, the forest, or the back green.

We know little about cats, but cats know a great deal about us. Cats have very probably an underground railway.

If there were no birds man could not live on the earth, and birds are decreasing in this country.

"The best things are nearest—light in your eyes, flowers at your feet, duties at your hand, the path of God just before you."

SOME OF OUR WISE POLITICIANS.

When we have conquered Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands away off on the coast of Asia, and annexed and fortified the Sandwich Islands, then, as we understand it, we are to have a canal across the Isthmus through which our United States vessels can pass, while all other vessels of the whole world [except when we choose to permit it] must take months to sail around the southern point of South America.

We wonder how long European and Asiatic and South American nations will consent to this nice little arrangement, and what will happen if they do not?

Washington advised us to keep out of difficulties with other nations, but though every steamer going up and down the Potomac tolls its bell when passing the home of Washington, it seems quite clear that some of our wise politicians of to-day think little of his advice.

HOMESICK DOG'S LONG TRAMP.

The latest native of Elmira to return from the "sunny South" is a valuable pointer that came on foot all the way from South Carolina to his home in this city because he was homesick. The dog was the property of John H. Sullivan, a law student. A family named Bunn, living near the Sullivans, on Kenyon street, who had been friends of the Sullivan family, signified their intention of moving to South Carolina to live. A large dog, which was owned by the Sullivans, spent much of his time between the two houses, sometimes staying for days at a time with one of the families and then leaving for the other house suddenly without apparent reason for his departure.

When the Bunnns moved to South Carolina they asked the Sullivan family to give up their interest in the dog, so that they could take him with them. This was agreed to, and the last that was seen of the dog in Elmira was when the train pulled out of the station with the dog securely tied in the baggage car.

Three months later the Sullivan family heard a strange noise at the door. They opened it and were astonished to see the dog which they had given to the Bunn family several months ago and which they supposed was miles away. The joy of the animal to find himself among his friends again knew no bounds.

He was so weak from hunger and exhaustion from the long journey that it was at first thought he would not live. The animal's feet were so blistered and swollen that after he had been home an hour or two he could not walk. What route the animal took or how long he had been on the way is not known.

Elmira (N. Y.) Advertiser.

A young man in one of our electric cars observing that a handsome young lady sitting opposite was looking at him very intently, and thinking that he might have impressed her favorably changed his seat to one by her side and said, "Hav'n't I seen you somewhere?" "Well," she replied, "I am not quite certain, but I think you are the man that stole our spoons." He left the car at once.

A CHIPMUNK.

During the fall term of 1898 a chipmunk was in the habit of skipping through our school-yard during school hours. The pupils were all very kind to him and tried to tame him, and he soon became so tame that he was not afraid to come very near to them, and one day he ventured into the school-room. One of the boys asked me if he might bring his cage to school and see if the squirrel would go into it. I gave my consent, thinking here was a fine chance for an object lesson. So it was not long before they had a pit in the school-room. Everything for the squirrel's comfort was brought and he seemed very happy. After we had had him two days I asked the pupils if they thought he was happy. "Oh, teacher," they replied, "he must be; for only see, we will take such good care of him, and he shall have everything nice to eat we can bring him, and fresh water several times a day." "Very well," I replied. "Now supposing I should put one of you in a wire cage, as large accordingly as the squirrel's cage, give you everything nice to eat, fresh water several times a day, and take the best of care of you, do you think you would be happy?" They answered, "No." Then they all said they thought we ought to let him have his freedom. So they opened the cage and allowed him to go wherever he pleased, but he continued near to share their lunch, and was always a very welcome visitor.

$10,000—BIRD DEAD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Mynah, a wonderful bird of the Orient, which spoke five languages and imitated various musical instruments, is dead. He belonged to Miss Emma Thursby, a well known singer, who lives at No. 34 Gramercy Park.

Many bird fanciers have spoken of Mynah as the cleverest of his kind. Miss Thursby valued him at $10,000. He was presented to her 12 years ago by the Emperor William of Germany, grandfather of the present ruler. He was then three years old, and has travelled on steamers nearly around the world.

He was an accomplished linguist at that time, and his store of languages increased year by year. He spoke Malay, Chinese, French, German and English. One of the choicest bits in his repertoire was a Chinese dirge, which he sang with bewildering effect.

CRUELTY TO THE TORTOISE.

The London Humane Societies are opposing the use of tortoise-shell ornaments on account of the terrible torture the animals are subjected to in depriving them of their shells.

The largest shells are obtained in the islands near Ceylon.

As we have now begun forming our American "Bands of Mercy" in the Island of Ceylon we hope they may soon have influence to stop this cruel practice.

ANGELL PRIZE CONTESTS.

A splendid way to raise money in schools, churches, Sunday-schools, or elsewhere for any object preferred.

ANGELL PRIZE CONTESTS IN HUMANE SPEAKING.

We have beautiful sterling silver medals, of which this cut shows the size and face inscriptions.

On the back is inscribed, "The American Humane Education Society."

We sell them at one dollar each, which is just what we pay for them by the hundred.

Each is in a box on red velvet, and we make no charge for postage when sent by mail.

The plan is this: Some large church or public hall is secured, several schools or Sunday schools are invited to send their best speaker or reciter to compete for the prize medal; some prominent citizen presides; other prominent citizens act as the committee of award, and a small admission fee, ten or twenty cents, pays all the costs, and leaves a handsome balance for the local humane society or "Band of Mercy," or school or Sunday-school or church or library or any other object preferred.

It is a splendid and easy way to raise money.

We have a book of 192 pages describing the plan and containing beautiful selections to be used by the speakers and reciters in these contests, which our "American Humane Education Society" sends to those who are going to contest, on receipt of six cents in postage stamps to pay postage; and to all others for sixteen cents in postage stamps, which is precisely what they cost us with postage.

Every school taking part wants to attend, so do parents and friends; good music is added and a full audience is insured, and a very enthusiastic one, for every school of course cheers its champion, and for a week after, the merits of what was said and how it was said will be discussed, not only by children but by parents.

As before stated, these prize contests have been already recommended by the Master of the National Grange for all the Granges of our country—also by the National Superintendent of the Department of Mercy of the W. C. T. U., to be adopted by that organization all over the country, and they have attracted notice from the press as far off as London and Australia.

We have already many orders for both books and medals, and on our table are interesting accounts of their success in various cities and towns.

PRIZES $675.

In behalf of The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals I do hereby offer (1) $100 for evidence which shall enable the Society to convict any man in Massachusetts of cruelty in the practice of vivisection.

(2) $25 for evidence to convict of violating the recently-enacted law of Massachusetts against vivisections and dissections in our public schools.

(3) $100 for evidence to convict any member of the Myopia, Hingham, Dedham, Harvard or Country Clubs, of a criminal violation of law by causing his horse to be mutilated for life.

(4) $50 for evidence to convict anyone in Massachusetts of a violation of law by causing any horse to be mutilated for life by docking.

(5) Twenty prizes of $10 each, and forty prizes of $5 each, for evidence to convict of violating the laws of Massachusetts by killing any insect-eating bird or taking eggs from its nest.

GEO. T. ANGELL, President.

OUR PRIZE STORY PRICES.

Black Beauty in paper covers, 6 cents at office, or 10 cents mailed; cloth bound, 25 cents each at office, or 30 cents mailed.

Hollyhurst, Strike at Shane's, Four Months in New Hampshire, also Mr. Angell's Autobiography, in paper covers, 6 cents each at office, or 10 cents mailed; cloth bound, 20 cents each at office, or 25 cents mailed.

Some of New York's "400," in paper covers, 10 cents each.

For Pity's Sake, in paper covers, 10 cents each; cloth bound, 75 cents at office, or 80 cents mailed.

Beautiful Joe at publishers' price, 60 cents at office, or 72 cents mailed. Cheaper edition, 25 cents; mailed, 30 cents. Both editions cloth bound.

Postage stamps are acceptable for all remittances.

"NEW YORK'S 400."

"It should receive as wide a circulation as 'Black Beauty.'"—Boston Courier.

"Charmingly told story. Its merits are many and its readers cannot be too numerous."—Boston Ideas.

"Extremely interesting. Will be laid down only with regret."—Gloucester Breeze.

"FOR PITY'S SAKE."

On the first day of issuing this book we had over a hundred orders for it, some of them for fifty and twenty-five copies.

"PITY'S SAKE" FOR GRATUITOUS DISTRIBUTION.

We acknowledge from various friends donations to aid us in the gratuitous distribution of this most valuable book, which everyone reads with pleasure, and having read wants everybody else to read.

To those who wish to buy it the price for our edition is ten cents, and Mrs. Carter's cloth-bound edition, for which the publisher's price is one dollar, we are permitted to sell at seventy-five cents, or post-paid eighty cents.

"The Humane Horse Book," compiled by George T. Angell, is a work which should be read by every man, woman and child in the country. Price, 5 cents.—Boston Courier.

For Light to Benefit Mankind, written by a New York Vice-president of our American Humane Education Society—gratuitously circulated by American Humane Education Society—write us.

In hiring a herdic, coupe, or other carriage never forget to look at the horses and hire those that look the best and have no docked tails. When we take a herdic we pick out one drawn by a good horse, tell the driver not to hurry, but take it easy, and give him five or ten cents over his fare for being kind to his horse. We never ride behind a dock-tailed horse.

Send for prize essays published by Our American Humane Education Society on the best plan of settling the difficulties between capital and labor, and receive a copy without charge.

Always kill a wounded bird or other animal as soon as you can. All suffering of any creature, just before it dies, poisons the meat.

SONGS OF HAPPY LIFE, &c.

For prices of Miss S. J. Eddy's new book, above named, and a variety of humane publications, address Art and Natural Study Publishing Co., Providence, R. I.

One thing we must never forget, namely: that the infinitely most important work for us is the humane education of the millions who are soon to come on the stage of action.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

What do you consider, Mr. Angell, the most important work you do?

Answer. Talking each month to the editors of every newspaper and magazine in North America north of Mexico, who in their turn talk to probably over sixty millions of readers.

"Just so soon and so far as we pour into all our schools the songs, poems and literature of mercy towards these lower creatures, JUST SO SOON AND SO FAR SHALL WE REACH THE ROOTS NOT ONLY OF CRUELTY BUT OF CRIME."

GEO. T. ANGELL.

Refuse to ride in any cab, herdic or carriage drawn by a docked horse, and tell the driver why.

FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.

To those who will have them properly posted we send:

- (1) Placards for the protection of birds.
- (2) Placards for the protection of horses from docking and tight check-reins.

WHAT A DOCKED HORSE TELLS.

- (1) That the owner does not care one straw for the suffering of dumb animals.
- (2) That the owner does not care one straw for the good opinion of nine-tenths of his fellow-citizens who witness the effects of his cruelty.

Every unkind treatment to the cow poisons the milk—even talking unkindly to her.

Is it cruel to keep a horse locked up in a stable without exercise?

Answer: Just as cruel as it would be to keep a boy, or girl, or man, or woman in the same condition.

If to this is added solitary confinement without the company of other animals, then the cruelty is still greater.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

- (1) Avoid so far as possible drinking any water which has been contaminated by lead pipes or lead lined tanks.
- (2) Avoid drinking water which has been run through galvanised iron pipes.
- (3) Avoid using anything acid which has been kept in a tin can.
- (4) When gripe or other epidemics are prevailing wear a little crude sulphur in your boots or shoes.

THE SNOW STORM.

Blow, blow; snow, snow,
Everything is white.
Sift, sift; drift, drift,
All the day and night.

Squealing pig, paths to dig.
Hurry out of bed,
Rub your nose, warm your toes,
Fetch along the sled.

Red-cheek girls, wavy curls,
School-house down the lane;
Fingers tingle, sleigh-bells jingle,
Jack Frost come again.

Setting sun, day is done,
Round the fire together;
Apples rosy, this is cosy,
Jolly winter weather!

NOT HOBSON.

He never sunk a collier
To bottle up a fleet,
But the pretty maidens kiss him
And exclaim: "Oh, ain't he sweet!"

He never scoffed at danger,
Nor made a poet sing,
He has never done a single
Extraordinary thing.

Still the women, when they see him,
Utter words of wild delight,
And at once begin to kiss him,
Each of them, with all her might.

But it hasn't swelled his head up,
Hasn't spoiled the little chap—
He is three weeks old and doesn't
Care a continental rap.

(From the New York Times.)

In one matter we are in thorough agreement with the editor of Our Dumb Animals, and heartily join in his demand for the suppression of an outrageous and utterly needless phase of cruelty. Every winter since stock-raising on a large scale began out West, reports have come of thousands and thousands of cattle starved and frozen to death. These tragedies have apparently come to be "a part of the business," and the ranchmen seem content if their losses are not so great that they cannot be made up during the summer months. This is generally the case, and the so-called cattle kings persist in neglecting to supply their herds with food or shelter during the inclement season. That it could be done is shown by the fact that it is done—by a few stockmen, chiefly newly arrived immigrants with comparatively small herds. Now as the Boston man well says, there is no reason why a cattle-owner on the plains should be allowed thus to maltreat and murder his steers, while a Long Island farmer is arrested and fined if he doesn't give his horse enough to eat. The Western method is undoubtedly as uneconomical as it is wicked, and in time this aspect of the question will be realized; but meanwhile the heartless speculator who habitually inflicts months of agony on the animals which give him wealth should be an object of detestation, not of sympathy, when a storm a little more severe than usual changes that agony into death from cold and hunger, and the plains are thickly strewn with the victims of his criminal neglect.

[We should very much like a letter from Mr. Roosevelt on this subject.—EDITOR.]

A CHANCE ACQUAINTANCE.

THE LEGEND OF THE DIPPER.

The following pretty legend, which tells how the seven stars came to form the dipper, is told in the New York Despatch:

Once in a country far away the people were dying of thirst. There had been no rain for months. The rivers and springs and brooks had all dried up. The plants and flowers had withered and died. The birds were so hoarse they could not sing. The whole land was sad and mournful. One night after the stars had come out a little girl with a tin dipper in her hand crept quietly out of a house and went into a wood near by. Kneeling down under a tree she folded her hands and prayed that God would send rain, if it were only enough to fill her little dipper. She prayed so long that at last she fell asleep. When she awoke she was overjoyed to find her dipper full of clear, cool water.

Remembering that her dear mother was ill and dying of thirst she did not even wait to moisten her parched lips, but taking up her dipper she hurried home. In her haste she stumbled, and, alas! dropped her precious cup. Just then she felt something move in the grass beside her. It was a little dog who, like herself, had almost fainted for want of water. She lifted her dipper, and what was her surprise to find that not a drop had been spilled! Pouring out a few drops on her hand she held it out for the dog to lick. He did so, and seemed much revived, but as she poured out the water the tin dipper had changed to one of beautiful silver. Reaching home as soon as possible she handed the water to the servant to give it to her mother.

"Oh," said her mother, "I will not take it. I shall not live, anyhow. You are younger and stronger than I."

As she gave the servant the dipper it changed into shining gold. The servant was just about to give each person in the house a spoonful of the precious water when she saw a stranger at the door. He looked sad and weary, and she handed him the dipper of water. He took it, saying: "Blessed is he that gives a cup of cold water in His name."

A radiance shone all about him, and immediately the golden dipper became studded with seven sparkling diamonds. Then it burst forth into a fountain, which supplied the thirsty land with water. The seven diamonds rose higher until they reached the sky, and there changed into bright stars, forming the "Great Dipper," telling the story of an unselfish act.

THE BACHELOR'S COMPLAINT.

Returning home at close of day,
Who gently chides my long delay,
And by my side delights to stay?

Nobody.

Who sets for me the easy chair,
Spreads out the paper with such care,
And lays my slippers ready there?

Nobody.

When plunged in deep and dire distress,
When anxious cares my heart oppress,
Who whispers hope of happiness?

Nobody.

When sickness comes in sorrow's train,
And grief distracts the fevered brain,
Who sympathizes with my pain?

Nobody.

SULPHUR.

We are glad to receive on this February 20th a letter from one of the leading humane writers and workers of England, that having been a great sufferer from eczema, which all physicians failed to reach, she was led from reading Our Dumb Animals to try sulphur in the shoes and stockings and a little in the linen at night, and has been in ten days entirely cured.

CARDINAL MANNING.

Cardinal Manning was a great man. On one occasion, when urged to go and winter in the south of France and follow the good example of an eminent clergyman, he answered, "When my father opens his door and wants Henry Edward Manning within, shall the child not be waiting on the step?" There is enough in that to make a sermon.

MEXICO.

At the Mexican Methodist Episcopal Conference held recently, of which Bishop Charles C. McCabe was president, it was resolved that they would use their influence to stop the practice of bull-fighting and that all Christian tourists visiting Mexico be respectfully solicited to refrain from witnessing that sport, "and that we regard attendance on this barbarous and cruel diversion by Christians, especially on the Sabbath, as nothing short of treason to the cause of Christianity."

We wish that some of our high military and naval officers who have been attending Sunday bull-fights in Cuba might view this matter in the same way.

VIVISECTION.

Professor Henry J. Bigelow, M. D., late professor of surgery in Harvard University—"The horrors of vivisection have supplanted the solemnity, the thrilling fascination of the old unethicized operation upon the human sufferer. Their recorded phenomena, stored away by the physiological inquisitor on dusty shelves, are mostly of as little present value to a man as the knowledge of a new comet, . . . contemptible compared with the price paid for in agony and torture. . . ."

"I have heard it said that 'somebody must do this.' I say it is needless. Nobody should do it. Watch the students at vivisection. It is the blood and suffering, not the science, that rivets their breathless attention. If hospital service makes young students less tender of suffering, vivisection deadens their humanity and begets indifference to it.

"The reaction which follows every excess will in time bear indignantly upon this. Until then it is dreadful to think how many poor animals will be subjected to excruciating agony as one medical college after another becomes penetrated with the idea that vivisection is a part of modern teaching, and that, to hold way with other institutions, they, too, must have their vivisector, their mutilated dogs, their Guinea pigs, their rabbits, their chamber of torture and of horrors, to advertise as a laboratory."—[From the annual address before the Massachusetts Medical Society.

MORE MEDICAL OPINIONS ON VIVISECTION.

Sir Thomas Watson, M. D., ex-President Royal College of Physicians—"One of the greatest physicians who ever lived . . . Sir Thomas Watson, told me himself, not long before he died, that young men had to unlearn at the bedside what they had learnt in the laboratory."—[From speech of Canon Wilberforce, June 22, 1892.

Surgeon General Charles Gordon, C. B., Honorary Physician to the Queen—"I hold that the practice of performing experiments upon the lower animals, with a view to benefiting humanity, is fallacious."—[Speech, June 22, 1892.

W. Martin, F. R. S.—"I have come to the conclusion that no good has ever been derived from any painful experiments on living animals. . . . I have never heard that practical surgeons have ever resorted to operations on living animals in order to teach them how to operate on the living subject, i. e., on man."

The late Dr. Charles Clay—"As a surgeon, I have performed a very large number of operations, but I do not owe a particle of my knowledge, or skill, to vivisection. I challenge any member of my profession to prove that vivisection has in any way advanced the science of medicine or tended to improve the treatment of disease."—[Letter in Times, July 31, 1880.

GENERAL MILES.

A question for the American people: How happens it that General Miles is so vigorously pushed for having objected to bad beef being sent our soldiers, while Egan gets six years vacation with a salary larger than Admiral Dewey's, as punishment for calling the head of the American army a liar?

TO ABOLISH DOCKING.

The Hunters' Improvement Society of Great Britain has sent out notices that all yearlings exhibited at their spring show must be undocked.

This radical step of the directors of the greatest of all horse shows in England is much to be commended, and if other directors will do the same thing they will soon put an end to a senseless and brutal practice. Senseless because it is nothing more than a disfigurement and of no advantage whatever to drivers or riders. Cruel for many reasons apart from the torture of the docking-irons. In warm weather the horse with a long tail is able to defend himself against the flies, brushing them away before they have time to settle, while the poor, useless stump of the docked-tailed horse keeps wagging in vain efforts to get peace. The maltreated animal tries to bite at the flies or beat them off with his hoofs, and is therefore able to get little or no rest in daylight, and in this country the mosquitoes come at night to make the struggle an unending one.

Much credit is due to the Islington directors, and it is to be hoped the movement will extend to all countries.—Boston Evening Transcript.

DEWEY AND THE DUKE.

The old Duke of Wellington, when overwhelmed with flattery by a young man he happened to meet in London, is said to have replied gruffly, "Young man, don't make a fool of yourself."

Hobson is a young fellow and doubtless enjoys the kisses he receives, but Dewey [being, as we judge, a sensible man arrived at years of discretion] would doubtless many times be inclined to make a remark similar to that of the old Duke, and very likely appreciates, as the Duke did, the truth of what Carlyle once said, that the population of ——— was about ——— millions—mostly fools.

ROWDY STUDENTS.

We see that nearly one thousand students of Wisconsin University attempted to break up a play at the Madison Opera House on the evening of January 12th. They resisted arrest; many ladies in the crowded Opera House were severely injured. During the performance songs were sung by the students, beer was passed around among them, and indecent remarks were made.

We note that the president of this institution is very anxious to obtain the Philippine Islands. Perhaps he would like to send some of his students out there to convert the natives.

"God give us men. A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men who possess opinions and a will, Tall men, sun-crowned who live above the fog In public duty and in private thinking. Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps. God give us men!"

THE ARSENAL.

This is the arsenal. From floor to ceiling,
Like a huge organ, rise the burnished arms;
But from their silent pipes no anthem pealing
Startles the villages with strange alarms.

Ah! what a sound will rise, how wild and dreary,
When the death-angel touches these swift keys!
What loud lament and dismal Miserere
Will mingle with their awful symphonies!

I hear even now the infinite fierce chorus,
The cries of agony, the endless groan,
Which, through the ages that have gone before us,
In long reverberations reach our own.

On helm and harness rings the Saxon hammer,
Through Cimbric forest roars the Norseman's song,
And loud, amid the universal clamor,
O'er distant deserts sounds the Tartar gong.

I hear the Florentine, who from his palace
Wheels out his battle-bell with dreadful din,
And Aztec priests upon their teocallis
Beat the wild war-drums made of serpent's skin.

The tumult of each sacked and burning village;
The shout that every prayer for mercy drowns;
The soldiers' revels in the midst of pillage;
The wail of famine in beleaguered towns;

The bursting shell, the gateway wrenched asunder,
The rattling musketry, the clashing blade;
And ever and anon, in tones of thunder,
The diapason of the cannonade.

Is it, O man, with such discordant noises,
With such accursed instruments as these,
Thou drownest Nature's sweet and kindly voices,
And jarrest the celestial harmonies?

Were half the power that fills the world with terror,
Were half the wealth bestowed on camps and courts,
Given to redeem the human mind from error,
There were no need of arsenals or forts:

The warrior's name would be a name abhorred!
And every nation that should lift again
Its hand against a brother, on its forehead
Would wear forevermore the curse of Cain!

Down the dark future, through long generations
The echoing sounds grow fainter, and then cease;
And like a bell, with solemn, sweet vibrations,
I hear once more the voice of Christ say, "Peace!"

Peace! and no longer from its brazen portals
The blast of War's great organ shakes the skies!
But beautiful as songs of the immortals,
The holy melodies of love arise.

H. W. LONGFELLOW.

FROM ANGELL'S LESSONS ON KINDNESS TO ANIMALS.

1. Never to stick pins into butterflies and other insects, unless you would like to have somebody stick pins into you.
2. Never to carry poultry with their heads hanging down, unless you would like to be carried in the same way.
3. Never to throw stones at those harmless creatures, the frogs, unless you would like to have stones thrown at you in the same way.
4. That nearly all snakes are harmless and useful.
5. That earth worms are harmless and useful, and that when you use them in fishing they ought to be killed instantly, before you start, by plunging them in a dish of boiling water.
6. That it is very cruel to keep fish in glass globes slowly dying.
7. That it is kind to feed the birds in winter.
8. That bits should never be put in horses' mouths in cold weather without being first warmed.
9. That it is cruel to keep twitching the reins while driving.
10. That when your horse is put in a strange stable you should always be sure that he is properly fed and watered, and in cold weather that his blanket is properly put on.
11. That you should never ride after a poor-looking horse when you can help it. Always look at the horse and refuse to ride after a poor-looking one, or a horse whose head is tied up by a tight check-rein.
12. That you should always talk kindly to every dumb creature.
13. That you should always treat every dumb creature as you would like to be treated yourself if you were in the creature's place.

A WESTERN POLITICAL EDITOR.

A Western political editor talks of us with great severity because we do not sympathize with his views in regard to our late war and the extension of our territory and the establishing of a great army and navy to hold it against all nations.

It is related that two of New England's leading lawyers, Jeremiah Mason of Massachusetts and Tristram Burgess of Rhode Island, when both were about eighty years of age, became so indignant at a hearing at our State House that each threatened to kick the other down stairs.

As we are only in our 76th year we believe we will keep at work with our pen and wait a year or two before threatening to kick our contemporary down stairs.

And in the meantime respectfully submit for his consideration those well known lines:

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return."

GEO. T. ANGELL.

"PERSONA NON GRATA."

In our February issue we had an article bearing the above name, from which it appeared that on account of our views in regard to war we were "Persona Non Grata" to some of those who differ from us, but we are glad to say that we are assured that a very large number of our best citizens all over our country agree with us. We have this morning a letter from a prominent legal gentleman, which closes, "May your name be cherished when those of all the chief actors in this wrong are lost in oblivion."

And here is another that comes by same mail with a donation for our work: "I take this opportunity to express my admiration for your work, and my gratitude that your life has been extended, and my hope that you have many years of life and health before you."

The editor of Our Dumb Animals is doing a noble work. He not only speaks for the dumb animals, but pleads for a higher civilization between man and man.—Muncie (Ind.) Democrat.

We believe that every household would be the better for reading Our Dumb Animals. Its editor ought to be granted a lease of life for 30 years more to continue his noble work.—Lawrenceburg (Ind.) Press.

(From the St. Louis Mirror.)

We call the attention of our readers to Our Dumb Animals and to its editor. It is for mercy and against misery, for everything that breathes. It is the most heartfelt literary product of frigid Boston.

FROM LEADING EDUCATORS.

Among kind letters received by us have been not a few from leading educators:

(1) From Major-General Chamberlain of Maine: "I read the whole of every number of Our Dumb Animals. I believe our people will understand the great education of character you are so steadfastly promoting."

(2) From President Carter of Williams College: "You have done much towards training the rising generation to a true humanity. I wish you God-speed."

(3) From Professor Peabody, Dean of the Harvard Divinity School: "I am glad to express my sense of the great importance of the work that you have done."

(4) From President Brosnahan of Boston College (Roman Catholic): "There is no paper coming to my office which I read with more interest and pleasure than Our Dumb Animals. You have the sympathy of all our Faculty in your efforts to refine the young. May God give you every success."

From the Brooklyn (N.Y.) Daily Standard Union.

[It is of course gratifying to us to find in the Brooklyn Daily Standard Union of Jan. 26th the following:]

The average work published by philanthropical societies is usually regarded as dry reading by the general public, but a work issued by "The American Humane Education Society," of Boston, is a most striking exception to the rule.

It contains the life and recollections of the Society's president.

After relating a short autobiography of Mr. Angell the book recounts his early struggles in founding the Society, which not only advocates and encourages kindness to dumb animals, but "kindness, justice and mercy to every living creature."

That would appear at first sight a wide field for one man to interest his fellow-men in, but Mr. Angell tells how by publishing the Society's paper, Our Dumb Animals, not only has the speechless brute creation been bettered in its condition, but that portion of it which talks has been elevated and benefited.

The book tells how politicians opposed Mr. Angell's work, and how he beat them. It gives in bright and concise form many anecdotes of his lecturing tours, struggles, oppositions and successes, besides accounting many benefits secured by the Society for the good of mankind generally.

Among other work accomplished, the volume gives interesting resumes of his visit to Europe in the interests of his work and his introduction to the Baroness Bardett-Coutts and other prominent people. He tells of how he inaugurated the crusades against the "check-rein" for horses; poisonous marbled ironware and wall papers; founded the "Bands of Mercy" in public schools; helped organized labor; stopped the practice of bleeding calves to bleach veal; aided in the suppression of the manufacture of poisonous and adulterated foods; made war on uneducated and incompetent doctors, and is full of anecdotes of his connection at different times with prominent characters in history with whom he came in contact in the prosecution of his undertakings.

Taken as a story, the book is a wonderful and most interesting record of what has been accomplished by Mr. Angell, and it has the merit of being written in a style replete with anecdote and brightened with wit.

"BLESSED ARE THE MERCIFUL."

We have in our principal office [in a large frame and conspicuous position] the names of those who have kindly remembered our two Societies in their wills.

When we get a building we intend to have them so engraved in it as to last through the centuries.

ALL NORMAL SCHOOLS.

In addition to the immense circulation of Our Dumb Animals elsewhere, we have ordered it sent regularly to every normal school in the United States.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

The old English mercantile houses retain the names not unfrequently of the founders of the firm who may have been dead a hundred years. The following is amusing:

A solicitor of subscriptions calling at the store inquired, "Is Mr. Smith in?" "No, sir," said the gentleman who received him. "Will he be in before long?" "I don't think he will." "How long has he been out?" "About a hundred years."

"WAY DOWN UPON THE SWANNEE RIVER."

QUEER ADVERTISEMENTS.

Somebody has been collecting queer advertisements from the papers; here are a few specimens:

"Wanted—An organist and a boy to blow the same."

"Wanted—A boy to be partly outside and partly behind the counter."

"Wanted—A boy to deliver oysters who can ride a bicycle."

"Widow in comfortable circumstances wishes to marry two sons."

"Annual sale now on. Don't go elsewhere to be cheated—come in here."

"For sale—A pianoforte, the property of a musician with carved legs."

"Wanted—A room by two gentlemen about thirty feet long and twenty feet broad."

"A lady wants to sell her piano, as she is going abroad in a strong iron frame."

"Wanted by a respectable girl, her passage to Europe; willing to take care of children and a good sailor."

"To be disposed of, a mail phaeton, the property of a gentleman with a movable headpiece as good as new."

"Lost near Highgate archway, an umbrella belonging to a gentleman with bent rib and a bone handle."

"Lost—A collie dog by a man on Saturday evening answering to Jim with a brass collar round his neck and a muzzle."

"Mr. Brown, furrier, begs to announce that he will make up gowns, caps, etc., for ladies out of their own skins."

"No paper comes to our table with a more hearty welcome than Our Dumb Animals."—Prince Edward Island Agriculturist.

WHAT IS THE OBJECT OF THE BANDS OF MERCY?

I answer: To teach and lead every child and older person to seize every opportunity to say a kind word or do a kind act that willmake some other human being or some dumb creature happier.

OUR AMERICAN HUMANE EDUCATION SOCIETY NEEDS $10,000.

The work of our "American Humane Education Society" is tremendously increasing, and if we only had the money we need we could easily enlarge it to ten times its present volume. We think it proper to say to our friends and the friends of our humane work, that our "American Humane Education Society" can only use the interest of money given to its permanent fund, and needs $10,000 now to increase its work.

FORM OF WILL.

I do hereby give, devise, and bequeath to "The American Humane Education Society," incorporated by special act of the Legislature of Massachusetts, the sum of — [or if other property, describe the property.]

To give to "The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," use the same words, only substituting its name in place of "The American Humane Education Society."
